

I like the freedom that XM radio provides...it differs from traditional commercial broadcast radio...i can hear a variety of music, something houston sorely lacks, i can hear a wide range of talk radio and i don't want commercial interests to limit my access to traffic and local reports...stay away from XM